

National Rural Health Mission, Assam

No.: NRHM/RCH/CS/135/08-09/22672

Dated: 31/12/2008

Expression of Interest (EOI)

National Rural Health Mission (NRHM), Assam under Public Private Partnership (PPP) invites Charitable / Private hospitals / Nursing Homes or private practicing Obstetrician/Gynecologist who have their own hospital to provide delivery care to the poor in the rural areas of the following districts Barpeta, Nalbari, Dibrugarh, Kamrup, Cachar and Nagaon. The scheme entitles to provide free delivery care in the private sector to the poor women for which the private sector hospital under this scheme will be given a financial package for each delivery for a year for providing delivery care services.

The hospital should meet following selection criteria -

1. It must be have doctors with Post- Graduate qualification in Obstetric & Gynecological.
2. The private practicing O &G must have his/her own hospital, with minimum 5 beds.
3. The Hospital/Nursing home must have minimum of 15 -20 beds
4. It must have functional Labour Room and Operation Theatre.
5. It must be able to access blood in emergency situation.
6. It must be able to arrange for Anesthetist and do Emergency Surgery.
7. Facility should be preferably accredited for sterilization procedure for Family Planning by the Government.

The proposal should have following specified information along with other information desired by the hospital to be given –

1. Name of the preferred district and sub district.
2. No. of deliveries (both normal & caesarian) conducted in last three years.
3. Manpower Status
4. Facility Available including Laboratory Investigation.

The interested hospitals or private practitioner O & G will have to submit detail proposal with above mentioned input by 19th January, 2009 to the Office of the Mission Director, National Rural Health Mission, H.No. 16, Janapath, Khanapara, Guwahati -22.

(Sd/-)

Mission Director
National Rural Health Mission, Assam